

THE DAILY SENTINEL is sent by all the early morning express and freight trains, and delivered to subscribers in adjacent towns at the same time it is delivered in this city. It is published at the office of the Capital of Indiana, at the corner of the day from six to twelve hours before they receive their papers published elsewhere. News dealers and carriers in all of the towns on railroads entering at Indianapolis, will be supplied with the SENTINEL on as good terms as any other paper. Clubs for the daily will be supplied at Agents' rates. Orders are solicited.

SPEECHES OF Hendricks and Voorhees.

The speech of Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, before the Democratic Convention on the 14th of January, 1902, and the speech of Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, to the House of Representatives, February 26, on the duty of the President in the case of a rebellion, were published in the Capital of Indiana, at the corner of the day from six to twelve hours before they receive their papers published elsewhere. News dealers and carriers in all of the towns on railroads entering at Indianapolis, will be supplied with the SENTINEL on as good terms as any other paper. Clubs for the daily will be supplied at Agents' rates. Orders are solicited.

Our nebular amblyotype was made at the Panticon. 15-1w.

The Democracy of Grant county meet in Convention on the 26th inst.

A bunch of keys was found and left at this office for the owner.

The Panticon is on Pennsylvania street, Etna Building. 15-1w.

Counterfeits, very poorly executed, on the Piazza Bank of the State Bank of Ohio, of the denomination of $3, are in circulation.

Two hundred and fifty more marines, to man gunboats on the Mississippi, are expected to pass through this city one day this week.

Yesterday was a most miserable April day. We had snow. We don't want any more until next winter.

Easter Sunday (yesterday) was observed by all good Christians throughout this community.

Artesian Ward, we understand, will shortly visit Indianapolis and deliver one of his unique lectures.

Two gentlemen can be accommodated with a pleasant room and board at Mrs. McCready's, West Market street, near the Circle.

An exchange thinks Lincoln's course ridiculous. We begin to fear it will prove radical. —Los Democrat.

At sixteen a woman prefers the best dancer in the room; at twenty, the best talker; at thirty, the richest man.

At Greensboro last week a man 70 years old was tried in the Circuit Court for wife murder and sentenced to the State Prison for life.

The Washburn river, at last accounts, was bankfull and overflowing—sweeping off much valuable property along the bottoms.

The St. Louis Democrat says the country will be pained to hear Gen. Sigel, returned from the southwestern army, is now lying at his residence in that city dangerously ill.

Major C. J. Doherty, of the 13th Indiana, wounded at the battle of Winchester, has arrived in the city. His injury is of the left arm, and he is rapidly recovering.

Physicians requiring prescriptions carefully compounded and of the purest drugs, are respectfully requested to send them to Scour's Drug Store, Bates Block.

There are now in the Bellefontaine Hospital, in the northern part of the city, seventy-seven rebel prisoners sick. Dr. Dunlap is the surgeon, assisted by Dr. J. H. Tilford.

What right have emancipated negroes to enter the State of Ohio? Why are not the Constitution and the laws enforced against this class of people who seem just about now ready to overrun us?

On this day week the municipal court, Mayor Maxwell presiding, will convene in the new room provided for them in Glenn's magnificent Block, East Washington street, south side, Indianapolis, Indiana.

An Odd Fellows' funeral.—Yesterday the remains of H. Bergeford were followed to the grave by the Odd Fellows of this city. He was a gentleman, a German, respected in life and honored in death. Peace to his ashes.

The police should look after those who on night by night rob hen roosts in the suburbs. One gentleman, living north of the city, had his hen house taken from his nest by a fox last night.

Adjutant Wallace Foster, of the 13th Indiana, has arrived in the city. This brave officer, one of the most accomplished who has come to the wars from Indiana, returns among us looking remarkably well and as enthusiastic for the Union as he ever was.

The Ball is rolling on.—The recent town elections in Harrisburg and York, Pennsylvania, have resulted in the election of the Democratic ticket in both places, over the Republicans. In York this is the second Democratic triumph in forty years.

Bowling Saloon.—Mr. T. C. Wright has resumed the proprietorship of the Bowling Saloon on Georgia street, between Illinois and Meridian, and has resorted to elegant and comfortable places of resort in the city, and gentlemen daily and nightly enjoy the beautiful and reinvigorating games at this establishment. No liquor is sold on the premises, and everything is kept in the most perfectly genteel style. 14-1w

Wheat prospects in Grant County.—The crop in this county never looked more promising or promising. Some of our farmers think it to much so on the presumption that it will be easily injured by the late frosts. Should it, however, receive no back set, there will be the heaviest yield known for many years.

Notice.—I have just received another large order of step ladders, and can now supply those who have been waiting for them. Every family and every person should have one. They are just the order for general use, as they are so stout, light and cheap. Sizes kept on hand from four to ten feet. Daniel Williams of Wenden and Co., opposite Glenn's Block. 21-3.

A Knicker and Son.—A firm, 29 East Washington street, have recently replenished their stock of boots and shoes, and now have one of the best assortments in the market. We would particularly call attention to their plow shoes and their assortment of gentlemen's, ladies' misses' and children's shoes of all kinds, just received from the Eastern manufacturers, all of which are offered at the very lowest cash prices. 15-3

Gen. Sullivan was in the city yesterday on a brief visit and return to Virginia to visit his wife and return to the army. He is in excellent condition, gradually but surely approaching Richmond in the rear, eager for the fray. Gen. McCall has at least a hundred thousand men at York and soon at army of one hundred and fifty thousand men, well equipped and disciplined, will menace Richmond in the opposite direction. This scenario is gradually tightening its coils around the rebel army, and will feel the agonies of its pressure.
